TO THE HONORABLE JOHN D. LEIGH, JUDGE OF THE CIRCUIT COURT OF BALDWIN COUNTY, ALABAMA, IN EQUITY SITTING.

Comes the Farmers & Merchants Bank and humbly complainant against George Majorossy, respectfully shows unto your Honor as follows:

FIRST:

That your Complainant is a corporation, organized and doing business under the laws of the State of Alabama; that the Defendant George Majorossy is over the age of twenty one years and a non-resident of the State of Alabama, his particular Post Office address and place of residence is unknown to this Complainant; that it has made and caused to be made diligent search and inquiry to ascertain his place or residence and Post Office address by inquiry from persons at Foley, Alabama, near which the land hereinafter described is located, and of John Stelk to whom the note and mortgage herein after described were made, and of the Tax Officials of Baldwin County Alabama, and upon such inquiry has been unable to ascertain the place of residence and Post Office address of said Defendant, but is informed and believed that he is a non-resident of the State of Alabama.

SECOND:

Complainant further shows that on to-wit, April 8, 1921, to secure an indebtedness of Eight Hundred and Fifty Dollars, the said Defendant executed and delivered to John Stelk, as Trustee, a note and mortgage, copies of which are hereto attached marked exhibits A and B and made a part of this bill of complaint; that in and by the terms of the said note and mortgage the Defendant agreed to pay the indebtedness evidenced thereby five years from the date thereof and further agreed to pay all costs of collecting or attempting to collect the said indebtedness.

THIRD:

Complainant further shows that no part of the said indebtedness or the interest thereon has been paid, but that there is due thereon and unpaid the sum of Eight Hundred and Fifty Dollars with interest from April 8, 1922, and that the terms of this said note and mortgage have been breached in that the said indebtedness is past due and unpaid.

FOURTH:

Complainant further shows that the said note and mortgage executed and delivered to John Stelk, as Trustee, authorized and empowered the said John Stelk, as Trustee, in the event of default in the payment of the indebtedness thereby secured, to sell the said property after giving notice of the sale by publication in some newspaper published in Baldwin County, Alabama, for four successive weeks, and making the first publication at least thirty days previous to the sale, said sale to be at public auction, to the highest bidder in front of the Post Office at Oak, Alabama, and did further provide that in the event of the death of the trustee, John Stelk, or his inability, refusal or failure to act, then the person acting as Postmaster was thereby appointed to succeed the said Trustee. Complainant further shows unto your Honor that the said John Stelk has failed and refused to act under the said instrument and to foreclose the same, and that the Post Office at Oak, Alabama, has been discontinued and there is no one to succeed the said Trustee.

FIFTH:

Complainant further shows that the said note was signed by the said George Majorossy and payable to himself and was endorsed by him, and the said note and mortgage delivered to the said John Stelk; that the said John Stelk hypothecated the said note and mortgage to the Complainant by that certain instrument dated December 2, 1924, payable on demand, to secure an indebtedness of Sixty-one Hundred and Fifty Dollars, a copy of which is hereto attached marked exhibit "C" and made a part of this Bill of complaint; that the said note marked exhibit "C" of John Stelk to the said Complainant was not paid and became due and delinquent on to-wit, May 29, 1927, that demand was made for the payment of the said note; that the sum of Nineteen Hundred and Sixty Dollars remained due and unpaid thereon; that default was made after demand in the payment of the same, and this Complainant under the aforesaid collateral note of John Stelk marked exhibit "C" sold the aforesaid note and mortgage of George Majorossy in the manner required by the said note and by the laws of Alabama applicable thereto and at such sale bought the aforesaid note and mortgage of George Majorossy on to-wit, the 27th day of August, 1926.

SIXTH:

Complainant further shows unto your Honor that it is not the owner of the said note and mortgage; that there is past due and owing to it under the aforesaid note and mortgage from the said George Majorossy the sum of Eight Hundred and Fifty Dollars with interest thereon from April 8, 1922, that it has employed counsel in behalf of the collection of the aforesaid debt and incurred attorney's fee in the premises.

Wherefore Complainant prays this Honorable Court will take jurisdiction of the cause made by this bill of complaint and by appropriate process require the Defendant, George Majorossy, to plead, answer or demur hereto within the time and under the penalties prescribed by law and the practice of this Honorable Court; that upon the final hearing of this cause this court will ascertain the amount of indebtedness due this Complainant from the said George Majorossy under the aforesaid note and mortgage, including a reasonable attorney's fee in the premises; and that the said lands described in the aforesaid mortgage, to-wit: The East half of the Southwest quarter of the Southeast quarter of Section seventeen, Township eight South, Range four East, Baldwin County, Alabama, be sold and the proceeds thereof applied to the debt owing to this Complainant from the said Defendant under the aforesaid note and mortgage, and that such other, further or different relief shall be given to this Complainant as in equity it shall be entitled to receive in the premises.

Solicitors for Complainant.

FOOT NOTE:

Defendant is required to answer each and every paragraph of the foregoing bill of complaint numbered first to sixth, inclusive, but not under oath. Oath being hereby expressly waived.

Five years after date, for value received, I promise to pay to the order of myself eight hundred and fifty dollars, at such place in the United States of America as the holder of this note may in writing appoint, and in default of such appointment, then at the office of John Stelk, in Oak, Alabama, with interest thereon at the rate of eight per cent per annum after date payable semi-annually until the principal sum is fully paid. Both principal and interest shall bear interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum after maturity.

If at any time before the maturity of this note I shall do, or suffer anything to be done, which will, or in any degree tend to, injuriously affect my financial standing and which will, or tend to, render me insolvent, then the holder of this note may elect, without notice to me, to declare this note due and payable forthwith, and in such case this note shall be due and payable on the day such election is made.

To secure the payment of the above mentioned principal and interest I hereby authorize and empower, irrevocably, any attorney of any court of record to appear for me in any court selected by the holder of this note, in term time or vacation, at any time when the holder has a right to institute and maintain court proceedings on this note under its terms, and enter my appearance, either orally or in writing, in any cause instituted by such holder to enforce its payment, waive service of process upon me therein, and consent to the entry of a judgment or decree for such amount as may be proven to be unpaid thereon together with the costs of such suit and ten per cent of the amount due for principal and interest for the services of the attorney in said cause and also to waive and release all errors, if any, that may be committed in any such proceeding and consent that such judgment or decree be final and that process be issued therein by the court forthwith to carry into effect the judgment or decree so entered against me, hereby ratifying and confirming all my attorney may do by virtue hereof.

And to further secure the payment of this note I hereby waive any and all preliminary notices, which are now, or hereafter may be, required by law to be given to me, in order to maintain an action on this note, and agree that the mere non-payment of any installment of interest when due, or the non-payment of the principal when due, whether by election or otherwise, shall entitle the holder of this note to institute any cause of action thereon without the usual preliminary steps required by law.

And to further secure the payment of this note I hereby expressly waive and release in favor of the holder of this note all exemptions enacted for me benefit by any of the States of the United States of America as to property now in my possession or which I may hereafter acquire, and agree that if said note shall remain unpaid when due, whether by election or otherwise, and if the holder shall feel insecure, such holder shall have the right to seize so much of my real or personal estate, or both, whatever its nature may be, wherever the same may be found, and whether exempt or not, as the holder shall deem sufficient security for the amount then due on this note, and to hold such seized property at my expense until a judgment shall be recovered on this note, and to turn such property over to the officer designated by the court to collect the judgment and costs awarded to the holder of this note to be by such officer disposed of according to law, but without regard to any and all exemption statutes.

And to further secure the payment of this note I hereby transfer, assign and set over unto the holder of this note any and all sums of money that may be due to me from any person, firm or corporation, at the time when the holder shall be entitled to the principal and interest and authorize the holder of this note to demand, receive and receipt for so much of such sum or sums of money so due us as shall be sufficient to satisfy the amount due on this note.

And to further secure the payment of this note I agree that if I shall fail to pay the interest on this note when the same comes due then the holder may declare the principal thereof due and payable forthwith.

In case it becomes necessary for the holder of this note to place the same for collection with any attorney or collecting agent then in such case I agree to pay, in addition to the amount due on this note, a sum equivalent to ten per cent of the amount then due on this note as the costs of collecting the same.

This note is secured by a trust deed to John Stalk bearing even date herewith upon real property located near Oak, Alabama, Wherever the words "we", "our" or "us" are used herein they shall be construed to mean us jointly or severally, whichever may be of the most advantage to the holder of this note.

IN EQUITY.

TO THE HONORABLE F. W. HARE , JUDGE OF THE 21st., JUDICIAL CIRCUIT COURT, BALDWIN COUNTY, . . . . . ALABAMA.

Your petitioner, Mrs. Elizabeth Hack, respectfully shows unto your Honor that she is the mother <sup>and not the Guardian</sup> of Stephen Hack, who is a minor over the age of eighteen years; that said minor resides in Perdido, Baldwin County, Alabama, in said circuit; that he is for his age of mature judgment and of sober and indistrrious habits; that he owns an interest in an undivided eighty acres of land which was mortgaged by his father prior to his death; that said mortgage is now due; that petitioner, the mother of said Stephen Hack, together with the other heirs, namely: Annie Bennett, Joe Hack and Frank Hack, are desirous of paying the mortgage and redeeming the place and in order to do so, it is necessary that they obtain a government loan and in order to do this the disabilities of the said Stephen Hack will have to be removed. It is therefore to his interest that the disabilities be removed and that he be allowed to assume personal control over his estate which your petitioner believes will be to his advantage.

Wherefore your petitioner prays your Honor to hear and determine the matter of her petition; that in order to complete consumation of the premises, your Honor will decree that the disabilities aforesaid, arising from the minority and non-age of the said Stephen Hack, be removed, and that said Stephen Hack be vested with the right to contract, sue and be sued, to buy, sell and convey real estate, and to do and perform all acts which said minor could lawfully do on his becoming the age of twenty one years.
