BILL OF DIVORCE

IDA LLOYD MCMILLAN
RESPONDENT.

TO THE HON. FRANCIS M. HARE, JUDGE:

COUNT ONE

Your orator, HUBERT MCMILLAN, a resident of Baldwin County Alabama. over the age of twenty-one years, respectfully shows unto your Honor that about the year 1925 orator intermarried with the said IDA LLOYD MCMILLAN, in said State and County, and that they lived together for several years as man and wife, most of the time residing in Baldwin County, Alabama, and orator has been a bona fide resident of Baldwin County for more than three years last past. That the respondent is over the age of twenty-one years.

COUNT TWO

That your orator and respondent were married in Bay Minette, Alabama on or about the 10th. day of October 1925 that a short time thereafter differences arose in the family circle by and because the respondent herein was extremely jealous of your orator. That she quarrelled, cussed, nagged, used vile words and applied opprobrious epithets. That on one occasion she said to your orator that she wished that "He was dead," and accused him of continually running around with other women. This continued for a number of months until finally on or about the first day of October 1927. Your orator came home one day unexpectedly and found the respondent herein in company with another man in their home and from the acts and deeds of the respondent your orator is led to believe and does believe that his said wife, IDA LLOYD MCMILLAN, has been guilty of ill-faith and has been unfaithful toward your orator. Your orator further represents that from time to time previous to the act complained of this respondent acted in such a manner as to cause him to believe in her unfaithfulness and acts unbecoming to him as his said wife. Your orator further shows to this court that the jealous, quarrelsome and nagging disposition of this respondent toward your orator is not conducive and not in conformity with home life and affiliation. That the respondent placed in the position as herein before stated and which led your orator to believe that his said wife, IDA LLOYD MCMILLAN, is guilty of the act of adultery, took her belongings and whatever things she could conveniently move and went away. That the respondent <sup>has</sup> ~~was~~ many times told the orator that she did not care for him and liked someone else better. Your orator further shows to this honorable Court that this respondent frequently stayed out nights and seemed to enjoy the company of other persons in preference to him and that the acts and doings of the respondent were not conducive to the happiness and affiliation of home life. .

COUNT THREE

Your orator shows to this honorable court that he is without fault, cause or consent in the premises.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE premises considered your orator prays that the bonds of Matrimony between himself and the respondent be dissolved and your orator be granted an absolute divorce. and held for naught?/And for such other relief as may in equity and good conscience be due your orator in the premises.

PRAYER FOR PROCESS

Your orator further prays for a subpoena to be directed to IDA LLOYD MCMILLAN directing her to answer the charges made against her and that she be made a party to this bill and that she be required to demur, answer <sup>or</sup> ~~and~~ <sup>to</sup> plead each and every count herein contained beginning with number ONE and ending with number Three.

AMENDED BILL OF DIVORCE COUNT NUMBER TWO

Comes now your orator and by permission of the Court first had and obtained amends his Bill of Divorce, as follows, to wit:

Your orator adopts all of the original Bill of Divorce as if fully set out in this amendment and attaches to the original Bill this amendment to Count Two thereof. In addition to the averment set out in the original Bill of Divorce of Count Number Two the following acts and deeds are shown to have been committed by the respondent herein as follows:

That on and after the Marriage of your orator and the respondent, the respondent became neglectful of her home and her family and sought the company and the affinity of other men and from time to time would leave the home of your orator and visit away in company with other men not her husband. And various and divers times during their term that they lived together the respondent was guilty of arousing the suspicion and anxiety of your orator. And on one occasion your orator was away from home assisting a man in repairing his automobile and returned home unexpectedly and found the respondent in a room of their home with the door shut in company with one man by the name of Risten, when your orator opened the door and stepped in he suddenly came upon them in an uncompromising position. That the above named had his arms about the respondent and when he saw the condition of things in his own home he closed the door and went away. That on or about the same day and date your respondent told your orator "I think more of any other man than I do of you and I do not care as much for you as I do a dog". These acts connected with other acts of various times and dates has led your orator to believe, <sup>and</sup> he does believe that the facts and circumstances as herein shown, that his said wife, the respondent herein, is guilty of unfaithfulness and the acts of adultery towards your Orator.

I, T. W. Richerson

as Register and Commissioner have called and caused to come before me Hubert McMillan and Herman Lowery witnesses named in the Requirement for Oral Examination, on the 19th day of August

1929, at the office of T. W. Richerson, Register in Bay Minette, Alabama, and having first sworn said witnesses to speak the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, the said witnesses doth depose and say as follows:

Hubert McMillan, the complainant, after having been duly sworn, testified as follows:

My name is Hubert McMillan. I live in Baldwin County, Alabama, and have lived there more than two years next preceeding the filing of this bill. I am over twenty-one years of age. I married Ida Lloyd McMillan on or about the 10th day of October, 1925, at Bay Minette, Alabama. She continually fussed and nagged at me. On or about October, 1927, I went away from home to help a man work on a car, and when I came back, I found another man and my wife in an uncompromising position. Roy Histon had his arms around her when I walked in the room. The door was shut, and when I opened the door and stepped in the room I caught them in the act of adultery. And when I saw what was going on, I just turned around, shut the door, and walked away. They looked as though they had been into some mischief. Since that time she went off with some other fellows, went out nights, and told me she liked another man better than she did me. She told me she didn't care as much about me as some other dog. The defendant is over twenty-one years of age.

Hubert McMillan

Herman Lowery, a witness for the complainant, who, after being duly sworn, testified as follows:

My name is Herman Lowery. I live in Robertsdale. Hubert McMillan has been one of my neighbors for ~~xxx~~ a long time. I know his wife, Ida Lloyd McMillan. I knew them when they lived together. I have been to their house and have heard the quarrels. I know when they parted, and since they parted I have seen Mrs. McMillan out riding around nights with other men. I have seen her attending dances with other men. They brought her to the dances and took her away. I know that both the complainant and the defendant are over the age of twenty-one years.

Herman Lowery

ORAL EXAMINATION.

I, T. W. Rice, as Register and Commissioner hereby certify that the foregoing deposition on Oral Examination was taken down in writing by me in the words of the witness them and read over to they signed the same in the presence of myself And Hon F.
