THE STATE
vs.

JOHN PIPKIN

Bail Fixed in This Case in Open Court at $ 2500⁰⁰

By F. W. Hare
Judge Presiding.

Attest: Archie J. Leitch
Clerk.

Executed this 5 day of Nov, 1948

By arresting the within named Defendant

and placing him in jail

Taylor Wilkins, Sheriff
Zollie B. Griffin, Deputy Sheriff

Given

Jefair J. Mathews, Jr.
Judge.

Charge 1:

The court charges the jury that, if the jury, upon considering all the evidence, have a reasonable doubt about the defendant's guilt, arising out of any part of the evidence, they should find him not guilty.

Charge 2:

The court charges the jury that if there is one single fact proved to the satisfaction of the jury which is inconsistent with the defendant's guilt, this is sufficient to raise a reasonable doubt, and the jury should acquit him.

Given
Jefair J. Madlibury, Jr.
Judge

Charge 3:

The court charges the jury that if the evidence or any part thereof, after a consideration of the whole of such evidence, generates a well founded doubt of defendant's guilt, the jury must acquit him.

Given,
Telfair J. Marshall, Jr.
Judge

Charge 4:

The court charges the jury that if the evidence is not so convincing as to lead the minds of the jury to the conclusion that he is guilty, they must find him not guilty.

*Refused
Telfair J.*

*Mashburn, Jr.
Judge.*

Charge 5:

The court charges the jury that unless each of you is convinced beyond a reasonable doubt of the guilt of the defendant, from the evidence in the case, then you should not convict him.

Given
Jelfair J. Mashburn, Jr.
Judge

Charge 6:

The court charges the jury that defendant cannot be convicted in this case unless each and every juror is not only reasonably satisfied from the evidence of defendant's guilt, but if satisfied from the evidence, and the evidence alone, beyond all reasonable doubt, and to a moral certainty, of his guilt.

Refused
Jelfair J. Marshall, Jr.
Judge

Charge 7:

The court charges the jury that if after a full consideration of all the evidence the guilt of defendant is not proven to a moral certainty, then the jury must find defendant not guilty.

Refused
Felton J. Masliburn Jr.
Judge

Charge 8:

The court charges the jury that each juryman must be separately satisfied, beyond a reasonable doubt and to a moral certainty, that defendant is guilty of the crime charged, or you cannot convict him.

Refused
Jelfair

J. Masbury Jr
Judge.

Charge 9:

The court charges the jury that the only foundation for a verdict of guilty in this case is that the entire jury shall believe from the evidence, beyond a reasonable doubt and to a moral certainty, that the defendant is guilty as charged in the indictment, to the exclusion of every probability of his innocence, and every reasonable doubt of his guilt; and, if the prosecution has failed to furnish such measure of proof, and to so impress the minds of the jury of his guilt, they should find him not guilty.

Given
J. Fair J. Mashburn, Jr.
Judge

Charge 10:

The court charges the jury that if after looking at all the evidence in this case and considering it fully, your minds are left in such a state of uncertainty that you cannot say beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant is guilty of the offense charged, then this is such a doubt as would entitle the defendant to an acquittal and you should so find.

Refused
J. J. Maslibury Jr.
Judge

Charge 11:

The court charges the jury that if the evidence for the state consists of testimony as to the truth of which the jury have a reasonable doubt, the jury must not convict the defendant, although they may not believe the testimony of the defendant's witnesses.

Given
Jefair J. Mashburn Jr.
Judge.

Charge 12:

The court charges the jury that if there is a reasonable doubt as to whether the killing was done with malice, defendant cannot be convicted of murder at all.

~~Given~~
J. Fair J. Marshall, Jr.
Judge

Charge 13:

The court charges the jury that before they can convict the defendant the evidence must be so strong as to convince each juror of his guilt beyond reasonable doubt; and if, after considering all the evidence, a single juror has a reasonable doubt of the defendant's guilt, arising out of any part of the evidence, then they cannot convict him.

Refused
Felton J. Mansbury Jr.
Judge

Charge 14:

The court charges the jury that a reasonable doubt of defendant's guilt is not the same as a probability of his innocence. A reasonable doubt of defendant's guilt may exist when the evidence fails to convince the jury that there is a probability of defendant's innocence.

Given
Jeffrey J. Moslibury, Jr.
Judge

Charge 16:

The court charges the jury that if, on a consideration of all the evidence in this case, you find the evidence so nearly balanced that the mere weight of it is on the side of the state, and not so heavy and strong as to satisfy you to a moral certainty that it is true, you cannot find defendant guilty.

Given
Julian J. Madbury, Jr.
Judge.

Charge 17:

The court charges the jury that if the evidence of the state consists in the statement of a witness, of the truth of which the jury has a reasonable doubt, they cannot convict on such evidence, although they may not believe the testimony of defendant's witness.

Given
Jefair J. Mallibury Jr.
Judge.

Charge 18:

The court charges the jury that you are not authorized to find a verdict of guilty on the testimony of a single witness, if you have a reasonable doubt of the truth of his statement.

Given
Jeffair J. Mashburn, Jr.
Judge

Charge 19: The court charges the jury that, if they are reasonably satisfied from the evidence in this case that the deceased had threatened to take the life of the defendant, and such threats had been communicated to defendant before or at the time of the fatal shooting, then this defendant, on the occasion of this killing, would have been authorized and justified in taking more prompt and decisive means of defense than if such threats had never been made and communicated, provided the defendant was without fault in bringing on the difficulty or entering willingly therein, and his life at the time was in imminent peril, or reasonably appeared to be, and he honestly believed that it was in peril, and under such circumstances as just stated the defendant was under no duty to retreat if you are reasonably satisfied from the evidence in the case that the deceased was at the time about to make an immediate murderous attack upon the defendant, or the defendant reasonably and honestly believed that deceased was about to make such attack.

Given
Jefair J. Mathewson
Judge

Charge 22:

The court charges the jury that the defendant is authorized under the statute, to testify in his own behalf, and the jury have a right to give full credit to his statements.

Sween
Felton J. Mashburn, Jr.
Judge

Charge 23:

The court charges the jury that the burden is upon the state, and it is the duty of the state to show, beyond a reasonable doubt and to the exclusion of every other reasonable hypothesis every circumstance necessary to show that the defendant is guilty; and, unless the state has done that in this case, it is your duty, gentlemen of the jury, to render a verdict of not guilty.

Refused

Telfair J. Mashburn, Jr.
Judge.

Charge 24:

The court charges the jury that the legal presumption of innocence is to be regarded by the jury in every case as a matter of evidence, to the benefit of which the accused is entitled; and, as a matter of evidence, it attends the accused until his guilt is, by the evidence, placed beyond a reasonable doubt.

Given
Zelphir J. Mashburn, Jr.
Judge

Charge 25:

The court charges the jury that the innocence of defendant is presumed until his guilt is established by the evidence in all the material aspects of the case beyond a reasonable doubt, to a moral certainty, and it may also be said that evidence of guilt must be strong and cogent, and, unless it is so strong and cogent as to show that defendant is guilty to a moral certainty, defendant should be acquitted.

GIVEN
Selfair J. Mashburn Jr.
Judge

Charge 26:

The court charges the jury that the law does not require one who is assailed in his own dwelling to retreat from it but the law permits him and says that it is his right to stand his ground and kill his assailant if it is necessary so to do to save his life or protect himself from great bodily harm, provided he is without fault in bringing on the difficulty and in this case the court charges the jury that if they believe from the evidence that the defendant found the deceased in the act of entering his dwelling house and that the deceased so acted as to create in the mind of defendant reasonable belief that he was in danger of his life or sustaining great bodily harm in the hands of the deceased, then the defendant under the law, had a right to shoot deceased and take his life, if such shooting was necessary to protect his own life or prevent him from sustaining great bodily harm in the hands of the deceased.

Refused
J. Fair J. Mansbury, Jr.
Judge

Charge 27:

The court charges the jury that if you believe the evidence in this case you cannot find the defendant guilty of murder in the first degree.

*Refused
J. F. Maslibury, Jr.
Judge.*

Charge 28: The court charges the jury that if you believe the evidence in this case you cannot find the defendant guilty of murder in the second degree.

Refused
Fairfax J. Maslibury Jr.
Judge

Charge 29:

The court charges the jury that if you believe the evidence in this case you cannot find the defendant guilty of manslaughter.

Refused
Jelfair J. Maslibury Jr.
Judge.

Charge 30:

The court charges the jury that if defendant shot deceased under a bona fide belief that he was in impending danger of limb, and he had, under all the circumstances, reasonable cause to believe that he was in imminent danger at the time the shooting was done, it would be immaterial whether there was such danger or not.

Refused
Jelfair J. Maslibury, Jr.
Judge

Charge 31:

The court charges the jury that if, after looking at all the evidence in this case, your minds are left in such a state of doubt or uncertainty that you cannot say, beyond a reasonable doubt, whether the defendant acted upon a well-founded and reasonable belief that it was necessary to take the life of the deceased to save himself from great bodily harm or death, or that he shot before such impending necessity arose, then this is such a doubt as will entitle this defendant to an acquittal, and you should so find.

Given
Telfair J. Mashburn, Jr.
Judge.

Charge 32:

The court charges the jury that it is not necessary that there should be actual danger of death or great bodily harm in order to justify the taking of human life, but, if the jury are satisfied, from all the evidence in the case, that the circumstances attending the killing of deceased were such as to impress the defendant with a reasonable belief that at the time of firing the shot it was necessary in order to prevent death or great bodily harm to his person, then they must acquit the defendant, unless they further believe that the defendant was not free from fault in bringing on the difficulty.

Given
Selfair J. Maslibury, Jr.
Judge

Charge 33:

The court charges the jury that it is the law that defendant had a right to protect himself from real or reasonably apparent felonious assault upon himself by the deceased, and if, on considering the evidence or any part of it, when considered with the whole evidence, you have a reasonable doubt as to whether defendant was justified in taking the life of deceased in defending himself from such assault, it will become your duty to acquit him.

Given

Jefair J. Mashburn Jr.
Judge

Charge 34:

The court charges the jury that if the defendant shot under a bona fide belief that his life was in danger, and had under the circumstances reasonable cause to believe that he was in imminent danger at the moment the shot was fired, it would be immaterial whether there was such actual danger or not.

Given
J. Fair J. Maslibury Jr.
Judge.

Charge 35:

The court charges the jury that if the defendant had the house rented, and was occupying it as his bedroom, at the time of the killing deceased, this is regarded as much the domicile and castle of defendant as though the defendant owned the house absolutely; and, if the defendant was assaulted in this house, he did not have to retreat, for the defendant had the protection of his house to excuse him from flying, and the law did not require him to fly from his house, and give up the protection of his house to his adversary.

Sven

Telfair J. Mansbury Jr.
Judge

Charge 36:

The court charges the jury that if from the evidence in this case you have a reasonable doubt that defendant was sufficiently sober to form a specific intent to take life, you cannot convict him of murder in the first degree.

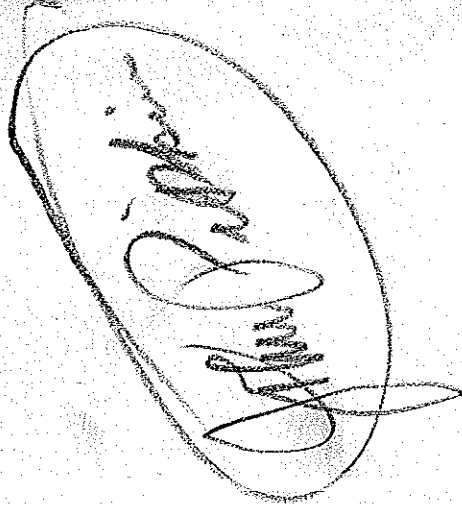

Refused
Jelfair J. Mashburn, Jr.
Judge

Charge 37:

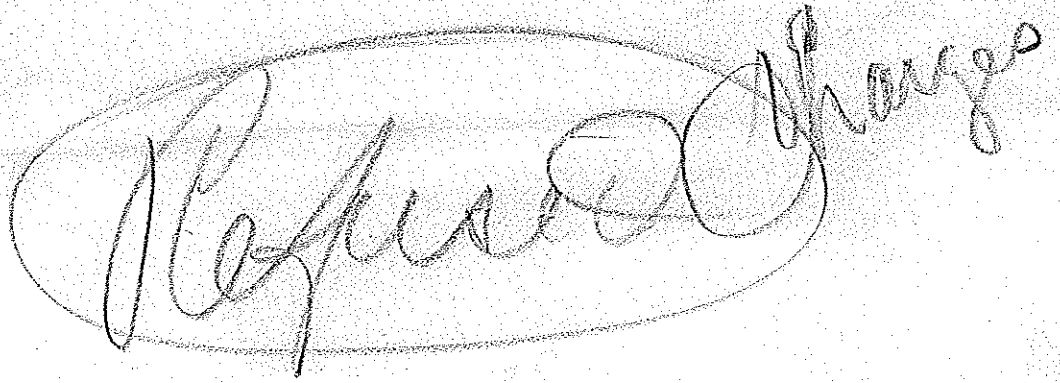

The court charges the jury that intoxication may render the accused incapable of forming or entertaining the specific intent which is a material ingredient of the crime of murder.

Refused

VS.

CIRCUIT COURT OF BALDWIN COUNTY, ALABAMA.

JOHN PIPKIN

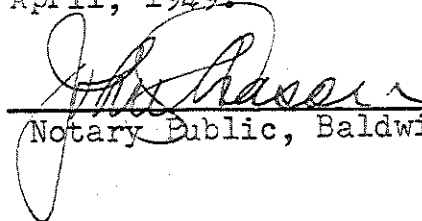

The witness Wembley Jenkins, who was duly and legally subpoenaed as a witness for the defendant in the above styled cause and who was duly served but who is absent at the trial of this cause would testify as follows if he were present at said trial:

That his name is Wembley Jenkins; that on the afternoon of Saturday, February 28th, 1948, at about 4:00 o'clock or 4:30 o'clock P. M. he was painting a bed behind the house in which he lived on the property of a lumber yard of Bay Minette, Alabama, owned by Sheppard-Wells. At about that time Mr. John Pipkin got out of a taxi on the road leading through said yard a short distance from the house where witness was; that John Pipkin started walking toward his house which was approximately 150 yards from where the taxi let him out. As John Pipkin was walking toward his house, John Little, who was a negro living near by, called to Mr. Pipkin and when they met John Little called John Pipkin a two bit yellow son of a bitch and said I ought to kill you and at the same time John Little drew a hatchet on Mr. Pipkin. Mr. Rube McConnell had been with witness for about 10 or 15 minutes and Mr. McConnell and I started walking toward John Little and Mr. Pipkin when we heard John Little cursing him and witness told John Little to leave Mr. Pipkin alone. At that time Mr. Rube McConnell, who was also known as Marshall McConnell started cursing Mr. John Pipkin. I told Mr. McConnell to go home and not start a fuss and I started taking Mr. McConnell home. John Pipkin then started to his house and John Little ran up to me and Mr. McConnell with his hatchet and told me to let Mr. McConnell go, if you don't I am going to cut hell out of you. I then left Mr. McConnell and John Little and went back to the bed that I was painting. Mr. McConnell and John Little then followed Mr. Pipkin, who was going to his house. Mr. McConnell hollered to Mr. Pipkin and told him to wait and Mr. McConnell went up to where Mr. Pipkin had stopped; there was nothing to keep me from having a clear view of them. When Mr. McConnell caught up with Mr. Pipkin, he was carrying an oak stick about four feet long and about $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches wide and $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches thick in his hand. It was the type of stick used for stacking lumber. I did not see Mr. McConnell when he picked up the stick. When Mr. McConnell caught up with Mr. Pipkin he hit Mr. Pipkin with the stick and they began to tussle. Mr. Pipkin broke away and ran to his house. Mr. McConnell was cursing Mr. Pipkin and told him he was going to run him out of the quarters. Mr. McConnell continued to curse Mr. Pipkin and Mr. Pipkin told him to go away and leave him alone that he did not want any ruckus. Mr. Pipkin told Mr. McConnell that he did not want to have to hurt him. Mr McConnell then called Mr. John Pipkin a yellow son of a bitch and said he was going to run him off the place. At that time Mr. Pipkin was in his house standing near the door which was open and Mr. McConnell was a short distance away from the house not far from where he had first hit Mr. Pipkin with the stick. Mr. McConnell then started toward the house and said, "you yellow son of a bitch you don't have guts enough to shoot me". At the time he said that he was walking toward the house. Soon after this I heard a gun fire. I heard only one shot.
