Now comes your petitioner, Herman Taylor, and respectfully shows unto your Honor as follows:

That he is a bona fide resident of Baldwin County, Alabama, and that he is over twenty-one years of age; that he was named respondent in that certain cause number 450 of this Honorable Court wherein Gladys Taylor was complainant and this petitioner was respondent and which proceeding was for a divorce.

Your petitioner further shows that on or about the 7th day of July, 1924, this Honorable Court entered a decree granting relief unto the said Gladys Taylor and dissolving the bonds of matrimony between the said parties, a copy of which decree is hereto attached, but in the said decree this petitioner was not given the right to marry again.

Your petitioner represents unto your Honor that he is an industrious law-abiding citizen, bearing a good reputation, is a young man, physically sound and desires to marry again; that he herewith files affidavits of three reliable citizens of Bay Minette, Baldwin County, Alabama, each of which affiants have known this petitioner for a number of years and which affidavits he asks that your Honor will take into consideration in connection with this, his petition.

Premises considered, your petitioner prays that your Honor will enter a decree, designating how testimony may be taken to substantiate this petition, unless the said affidavits are sufficient, and that your Honor upon final hearing will grant unto him the right to marry again.
