Mr. Leroy Lynch testified that he was the operator of a truck going west on U. S. 31 near Spanish Fort. A vehicle ahead of him going the same direction gave signal to make a right turn. Also he ^{Mr. Lynch} gave the signal to slow down, and pulled over to the left to pass the vehicle ahead making the turn. A vehicle that Mrs. Smith was operating attempted to pass him then without any signal at all, with no room to pass, the vehicle Mrs. Smith was

RE: State

Lucille Smith
Reckless Driving

Dear Mr Mills:

Your transcript in above styled case has been received, and is being returned herewith.

Attention is invited to Title 15, Section 135 and 136, Code of Alabama, 1940. It is requested that the evidence for both the State and Defendant Smith be reduced to writing, and signed by the witnesses as required by said sections of the Alabama Code.

You will recall that this particular question arose at the conference held in this office 5 May 1949. In paragraph E, sub-paragraphs 4 and 5, NOTES FOR JUSTICE OF THE PEACE CONFERENCE held as indicated, this point received special emphasis. The present transcript is being returned so that you may correct it accordingly. The record of the case is being kept.

Reference the Affidavit in this case, it is pointed out that the year of the Reckless Driving does not appear thereon. Where the Affidavit reads "on or about Aug 14" the year "1950" should follow. Regarding the Appeal Bond it would appear proper for your name to appear thereon, in the space indicated in the lower-left-hand corner thereof.
