Now come the above named defendants, Elwood Lee Johnson, Joseph Colvin and George Colvin, and show to the Court that they are each now confined in the jail of Baldwin County, Alabama, under a commitment issued by Justice of the Peace Court of Hon M. R. Howell, of Foley, Alabama, charged with the offense of second degree burglary. The said defendants further show that they have each been committed to jail for more than fifteen days; and that each desires to waive indictment by the grand jury and plead guilty to said offense charged against them.
