CIRCUIT COURT

February

Term, 1953

On Appeal from County Court.

THE STATE vs. JOHN ANDREW FAULK

The State of Alabama, by its Solicitor, complains of John Andrew Faulk

in said county and within twelve months before the commencement of this prosecution he did

~~unlawfully park or leave standing a motor vehicle upon the paved or improved or main traveled portion of U. S. Highway 31, a public highway, outside of a business or residence district, it being then and there practicable to park or leave such vehicle standing off of the paved or improved or main traveled portion of such highway, against the peace and dignity of the State of Alabama.~~

~~2. The State of Alabama, by its Solicitor, complains of John Andrew Faulk that in said county and within twelve months before the commencement of this prosecution he did park or leave standing a motor vehicle upon U. S. Highway 31, a public highway in Baldwin County, Alabama, in such a position on said highway so that a clear view of such vehicle ~~was~~ could not be obtained from a distance of two hundred feet in each direction upon such highway, ~~and~~~~ contrary to law and against the peace and dignity of the State of Alabama.
