CIRCUIT COURT

Fall Session

Term, 1952

On Appeal from County Court.
Juvenile

THE STATE vs. CHARLES L. MERRITT

The State of Alabama, by its Solicitor, complains of Charles L. Merritt, whose name is to your informant otherwise unknown, that in said county and within twelve months before the commencement of this prosecution he did aid, encourage, or cause Opal Campbell, a child under sixteen years of age, to become delinquent, or has by word, act or omission, threats, commands or persuasion, induced or endeavored to induce, aided or encouraged said child to do or perform an act, or to follow a course of conduct which would cause or manifestly tend to cause such child to become or remain delinquent, in that the said Charles L.

Merritt did accompany said child in an automobile late at night, or did kiss or attempt to kiss said child, or did give or attempt to give said child intoxicating liquor, contrary to law and against the peace and dignity of the State of Alabama.

THE STATE OF ALABAMA,

Juvenile Court of

Baldwin

COUNTY.

Baldwin

County.

We,

Charles Merritt

principal, and

sureties

acknowledge ourselves indebted to Baldwin County, Alabama, in the sum of Five hundred-----

for the payment of which, well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our administrators and executors. But the condition of the above obligation is such, that whereas the Juvenile Court of said County did on the 22nd day of September, 1922, make and enter a final order of judgment, whereby the above bounden Charles Merritt was convicted for Contributing to Delinquency of a minor child and sentenced to Twelve months hard labor and whereas the above bounden Charles Merritt has prayed and obtained an appeal from said order, to the Circuit Court of Baldwin County, Alabama.

Now, if the said Charles Merritt shall appear in said Circuit Court when said case is called for trial, and from time to time thereafter until discharged by law, and shall answer such judgment as shall be rendered on said appeal, and shall pay all costs that may accrue on said appeal, then this obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full force and effect. And as against this obligation we waive all right under the laws of Alabama to claim any personal property as exempt from levy and sale.

Witness our hands and seals this day of 1922
