Re: State of Alabama vs.
Robert Bolar (Case No. 1725)

Mrs Duck has this date advised me of the payment that you made yesterday on your two cases, and that you had been informed that the balance due on this case, No. 1725, was only $50.00. Judge Hall apparently reduced the fine from $100.00 to $50.00. However, you will recall that when this case arose it was agreed that this case would not be considered settled until you had also repaid Scott-Luttrell Motors at Robertsdale the balance due them, which as I recall was $228.15, and a receipt was to be presented to the Court before the case was to be considered closed. You must therefore get a receipt from Scott-Luttrell and present it here before this case can be considered closed.

If there are any questions about this matter you may call me on the telephone or write. Of course, we are expecting to have all this taken care of not later than the end of this month.

Very truly yours,

K. C.
