This is a true and voluntary statement on my part with no promises nor threats being made against me.

I got out of jail in Mobile at 8:30 A.M. this date. My brother drives a cab, he took us home. I had a fuss with my parents. We came back to the Bus Station to see if we could catch a ride to Foley to see if we could get a job. We got hear about 2 P.M. We went in Martz Shed, we decided to wait around their about 2 hours to see if anyone showed up. We saw noone showed up. We started to Pensacola to see my mother. We were going by the store, on the spur of the moment, while we were standing there, we decided to go in. We walked around until we located the cash register. I walked across the street. I found a piece of iron. Both of us pried the door open. We went to the cash register first then took 2 packs of cigarettes each. Then we started to Pensacola. We were standing on the side of the road when we were picked up.
