Born- April 12, 1925

I was working for Mr. Gash at the warehouse. Moved the barrel up to the window and went in and got one (1) check out of the book and made it payable to James Johnson, the amount of $59.69. Carried check to Teates Department Store and had it cashed.

I carried this check home and filled it out and signed Carl W. Gash; made it out for shed labor. I made up a Social Security number- SS-262-18-1562.

After I went home and filled the check out, Authur Wilson brought me back to town.

John Sylvester is the true name of the man that saw me go in and get the blank check.
