OFFICE OF
JUDGE OF PROBATE COURT
BALDWIN COUNTY, ALABAMA

BAY MINETTE, ALA.

June twenty-fifth, 1931.

Mr. B.L. Randall,
Daphne, Ala.

Dear Mr. Randall:-

I am herewith enclosing papers in the matter of setting apart exemptions to Frances Brandenburg, as the widow of Henry E. Brandenburg. The Warrant to Commissioners is self-explanatory, and the articles of personal property should be entered on this list making the extensions after each item. Before entering into your duties as such commissioners you should sign the oath to the commissioners, which I am also enclosing. The report of setting apart real estate to the widow is separate from that of the personal property, and I have indicated where the commissioners are to sign, after entering the appraised value of the real estate.

If you will handle this matter as soon as convenient to all of the commissioners, it will be appreciated by us. After you have made the appraisements and report and have properly signed same, please return them to this Court, with statement of number of days employed by commissioners and number of miles travelled.

With regards, I am,

Yours very truly,

Judge of Probate,

 clk.

Daphne, Ala. July 17, 1931.

Enclosed please find report of commissioners appointed in the matter of Henry E. Brandenburg, deceased. In regard to the personal property, there are a few odds and ends that Mrs. Brandenburg did not sell, but she left instruction with the tenant on the place, to sell and send her the proceeds, probably not over ten dollars in value. There is also some tools, which we were informed Mr. Brandenburg had given ~~given~~ to a Mr. Siglin, a man who worked for him.

The time employed by the commissioners was three hours, the number of miles travelled, seven and the notary fee 75¢.

Very truly yours,
