vs }
MAUDE WHITE
Respondent. }

TO THE HON. F. W. HARRIS, JUDGE OF THE CIRCUIT COURT OF BALDWIN COUNTY, ALABAMA, SINGING IN EQUITY:

Comes now your complainant, W. H. White, presents his Bill of Complaint against Maude White and shows to your honor as follows:

That your complainant, the said W. H. White and the Respondent, Maude White, are both over the age of twenty one years and are both bona fide residents of the State of Alabama and have been for a period of over three years next preceding the filing of this complaint and are both now residents of Baldwin County, State of Alabama.

That your complainant, W. H. White, and the Respondent, Maude White, were married the 6th day of February, 1921 at Bay Minette, Alabama and that they lived together as man and wife until on or about the 1st day of August, 1931; that to the said marriage no children were born.

Your complainant shows to your honor that the said Respondent, Maude White, left their home and went away with another man and that she has continued to keep company with other men and that on or about the 18th day of April, 1933, the said Respondent gave birth to two children (twins) that are not the children of your complainant and that your complainant had not cohabited or lived together since the day of their separation (August 1st, 1931) and that by such acts of adultery with various and diverse persons and that such acts was not condoned or acquiesced in by your complainant; and that the two children born to the Respondent as hereinbefore set forth, are not the children of your complainant and are two girl babies, the offspring of the respondent and another man.

The premises considered, your complainant prays that your Honor will take jurisdiction of the cause made by this bill of complaint, and will cause notice thereof to be served on the Respondent, Maude White, according to the rules of this Honorable Court and the laws of the State of Alabama in such matters pertaining, and make her Respondant to said Bill of Complaint requiring her to answer, plead or demur within the time required by Law.

Your Complainant further prays that upon the final hearing of this cause that your honor will grant him a decree of divorce dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between your complainant, W. H. White and the said Respondent, Maude White, granting to him an absolute divorce, granting to him the right to marry again.
