Clara Hall, Plaintiff - vs

Mrs. I. F. Nixon, Defendant

1. The plaintiff claims of the defendant the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars ($150.00) due on promissory note made by the defendant on Sept, 9th, 1930, for said sum and payable on the 9th day of September, 1931, with interest from date, to the order of the defendant, on which there is a credit of $12.00 as of <sup>to-wit</sup> 9 - 9 - 1931, which note the plaintiff is the owner of, it having been delivered to her in person with the knowledge and consent of the defendant and under the defendant's authority.

2. The plaintiff further claims of the defendant the sum of $150.00, with legal interest from the 9th day of September, 1930, on which there is a credit of $12.00 as of September (to-wit) 9th, 1931, for money paid by the plaintiff at the request of the defendant on September 9, 1930, and for the defendant, and which sum of money the defendant did promise the plaintiff to repay to her on September 9th, 1931, but which sum of money is still due and unpaid, with interest thereon, from the defendant to the plaintiff.

W. G. Jones
Attorney for the plaintiff.

The plaintiff demands trial by jury.
