THE STATE OF ALABAMA,) ESCAMBIA COUNTY.)

Before the undersigned authority this day personally appeared Leon G. Brooks, who being first duly sworn, deposes and says, that he ^{is} of Counsel for the State of Alabama and that Clay Products Company, a corporation, is justly indebted to the State of Alabama under the Revenue Laws of said State in the sum of, to-wit: One Hundred Fifty Dollars ($150.00) for a corporation franchise tax of One Hundred Twelve Dollars ($112.00) for the tax year beginning January 1, 1935, a corporation permit fee of Thirty Dollars ($30.00) for the calendar year 1935 and the further sum of One Percent (1%) per month from May 1, 1935 of said franchise tax and interest thereon at the legal rate from said date, and interest at the legal rate from January 1, 1935 on said permit fee; that the State of Alabama has for the payment of said sums and the costs of this suit a lien superior to all other liens upon all of the goods, wares and merchandise or any other property owned by the defendant; that the State claims its said lien and prays the issue of an attachment to be levied upon the property of said corporation to satisfy the same, and that this attachment is not sued out for the purpose of vexing or harrassing the defendant.
