ANSWER TO ATTACHMENT.

Comes the State Bank of Elberta, a corporation, and in answer to the attachment writ served on it on the 22nd day of September, 1936 says:

That the records of this corporation show that the defendant above named holds certificate # 148 for four and nine-tenths shares of common stock in this corporation.

That this stock is subject to a lien in the favor of this corporation for the sum of EIGHTY-SEVEN and 68/100 DOLLARS ($87.68) and that this corporation is subjecting this stock to this lien by proceedings begun prior to the service of this attachment and that so much of this stock will be sold as is necessary to discharge this corporations lien.

That after this sale this garnishee corporation will report its action to the Court and will hold the proceeds from or residue of the sale subject to the orders of this Honorable Court.

CASE NUMBER 304

DEMAND FOR A JUDGMENT BY DEFAULT UNDER CIRCUIT COURT RULE NUMBER NINE.

Comes the Plaintiff in the above entitled cause and shows to this Honorable Court that service was perfected on this defendant on the twenty-second day of September, 1936 and that the defendant has not answered, plead or demurred as required by the rules and practices of this court and that the plaintiff deems himself entitled to a judgment by default.

Wherefore Plaintiff demands said judgment by default and files this demand in this court.

Plaintiff requests that the clerk of this court shall send the papers of this cause to the judge of this court, unless the judge is to be in the court house within five days from the filing hereof, together with the proof by affidavit and the clerks certificate showing the facts and that the judge will grant said judgment by default in favor of this plaintiff.

AFFIDAVIT FOR JUDGEMENT BY DEFAULT.

STATE OF ALABAMA,

COUNTY OF BALDWIN.

Helen Lenz

Before me, ~~E. G. Rickarby, Jr.~~, a notary public in and for said state and county personally appeared CARL HANSELMAN, who being by me first duly sworn deposes and says that: he is the plaintiff in the above entitled cause and that the defendant FRED STREHLE, SR., was indebted to him at the time of the filing of this suit in the sum of two hundred and forty-four dollars and twenty-eight cents and that said account was due on the First day of September, 1936.

Affiant further states that since the filing of the suit the defendant has come to see him and admitted the indebtedness and agreed to pay the same and that he the plaintiff has given the defendant credit for the sum of thirty dollars for some furniture which the defendant gave him for that purpose and that the defendant did agree to pay the account in monthly installments but that he had failed to do so.

Affiant further states that there is now due on this account the sum of two hundred and fourteen dollars and twenty-eight cents with interest thereon since the filing of this suit in the sum of three dollars making a total of TWO HUNDRED SEVENTEEN DOLLARS and TWENTY-EIGHT CENTS ($217.28) for which the plaintiff requests judgement.
