DEFENDANT'S ANSWERS TO THE INTERROGATORIES

Comes now W. C. Holmes, the above named defendant, and for answers to the interrogatories propounded to him by the plaintiff says as follows:

1. The attached account is not correct in that it omits a payment of $40.95.

2. The account shows all payments except this one. It was made at the time I signed the order on April 21st, 1937 and was made to the salesman of the plaintiff whose name was W. B. Tucker. I considered my copy of the order sufficient receipt and took no other. I cannot locate the cancelled check with which I made this payment.

3. I do not recall ever making this statement. I am not under the impression but am positive that I should have credit for $40.95; I have never said I thought I paid this amount since I know I paid it; I did not say that I have no record of ever having made that payment although I have stated, as above, that I could not find my cancelled check.

W. C. Holmes

Subscribed in my presence and sworn to before me this 12 day of August, 1939.

Notary Public.

Dear Sir:

In Re Aloe Company vs. Holmes: Please figure up the amount of costs in this case and include a dismissal fee, letting me know the amount. I hope to arrange a settlement in this matter with the understanding that the case is to be dismissed when monthly payments cover the whole amount. Will leaving it on the docket run up expenses?

Yours very truly,
