Dear Judge Hare:

This young lady was also a passenger in the automobile which was in the collision referred to in the attached letter. She was slightly injured on her right elbow. She has entirely recovered according to my information and I have agreed with her, her attorneys, and her father to pay her seventy-five dollars, plus court costs, and doctors bills. I have requested Messrs. Hybart and Chason, Plaintiff's attorneys, to take a judgment by consent for this amount and I will ask that you please enter the order when they request it.

Yours truly,
