Louis Weissberg.

In the Circuit Court of Baldwin County, Alabama
at Law

Comes the defendant in the above styled cause and for answer to plaintiff's Complaint and to each count thereof separately and severally, the defendant says:

1. That he is not guilty of the matters and things alleged in said Complaint.

And for further answer to Count 1 and Count 3 Complaint, <sup>separately and severally</sup> the defendant
says:

2. Rosalee Jensen ~~was~~
~~was then~~ an agent of plaintiff ~~defendant~~, who was then and there acting within the line and scope of her authority as such agent was guilty of negligence which proximately contributed to cause the alleged injuries of and damage of plaintiff, in this, that at the time and place complained of, the said Rosella Jensen who was then and there acting within the line and scope of her authority as an agent of plaintiff, was driving the automobile of plaintiff, in which plaintiff was riding, to the left of the center line of the said highway and while so doing caused the said automobile which she was driving to collide with the automobile of the defendant.

COUNTER-AFFIDAVIT ON HEARING OF MOTION TO SET ASIDE JUDGMENT NUL DEDIT

Before me, Cornelia Hall, a Notary Public in and for said County in said State, personally appeared Leslie Hall, known to me, who, being by me first duly and legally sworn to tell the truth and nothing but the truth, deposes and says:

"My name is Leslie Hall. I am 28 years of age, a resident of Bay Minette, Baldwin County, Alabama, and am the Attorney for R. L. Jensen, Sr., Plaintiff in the above-styled cause.
After filing this suit, I went to Mobile, Alabama, on Friday, February 9, 1940, to represent Mr. Jensen in a case growing out of the accident in which the Plaintiff was injured, which case was to be tried in the Inferior Criminal Court of Mobile County, Alabama, Judge Tisdale J. Tuckert presiding. The Defendant, Louis Weissberg was also required to appear before the same court on a charge of reckless driving, growing out of the same accident. Two days before, on February 7, 1940, the summonses and complaints in this case and in the cases filed against the same Defendant by Rosalee Jensen and Mrs. Esther O'Gwynn, were forwarded to Sheriff Holcombe of Mobile County, Alabama, for service on the Defendant. On the day of the hearing in the Inferior Criminal Court of Mobile County, these summonses and complaints were in the hands of Mr. Mose Bernstein, a Deputy Sheriff of Mobile County, Alabama, for service on the Defendant, Louis Weissberg. When Louis Weissberg and a man calling himself Victor Awad appeared, I asked which man was which.
Thereupon Mr. Bernstein served the summons and complaint in each case, by showing to the man who was calling himself Louis Weissberg, the original in each case and by handing to him a copy of the summons and complaint in each case. Mr. Leo Berman, an attorney of Mobile, was present, representing Mr. Weissberg. Mr. Weissberg read the summons and part of the complaint in each case. He read them out loud. When he got down to the part of the complaint which alleged the amount of damages claimed, he laughed and said he would just sue the Plaintiff for twice as much. He did this in regard to each case. When he asked the Deputy who served him what he should do with the papers, and the Deputy told him to turn them over to his lawyer, that they did not have anything to do with this hearing before the Inferior Criminal Court, and that they were civil suits for damages, commenced in Baldwin County, Alabama.
He asked when they would be heard, and I told him myself that he had thirty days in which to answer. He informed me that I was wasting my time, as he was a non-resident of the State of Alabama, and that I couldn't get any damages out of him. The next day, Mr.
Berman called me and said that they had just learned that their car had been attached in the suit of Mrs. Esther O'Gwynn vs. Louis Weissberg; that they wanted to get the car fixed and to take it back north with them; and inquired on what terms I would release the attachment. I agreed to release the attachment in return for a general, unqualified appearance by Louis Weissberg, in that case.
This was agreed to and done.

(turn)

"Weissberg was well-dressed when I saw him. He had a good command of the English Language, and read well. His appearance was neat and well-groomed. When informed of the fact that he had been sued, he discussed with Mr. Bernstein and me the matter of his inability to pay any damages, and several times mentioned filing a counter-suit."

STATE OF NEW YORK     ) COUNTY OF NEW YORK    )

Before me, ANNE BETTINGER, a Notary Public in and for the aforesaid State and County, personally appeared LOUIS WEISSBERG, <sup>168 W. 11th St. N.Y.C.</sup> known to me, who being by me first duly sworn, deposes and says:

I am a resident of the City of New York, State of New York. On to-wit, the 4th day of February, 1940, at about seven o'clock P.M., I was driving an automobile along a public highway along a causeway of Cochrane Bridge near the Tensaw River. I was driving the said automobile upon the right half and well to the right of the center line of the said highway and was otherwise driving the said automobile without negligence. While I was so driving the said automobile, another automobile owned, operated and controlled by one, R. E. JENSEN, Sr., traveling in the opposite direction and approaching the automobile which I was driving, swerved over to its left side of the center line of the said highway and collided with the automobile which I was driving, even though I pulled as far as possible to my right hand side of the said highway to avoid the said collision. At the time of the said collision, Edward Awad, Mrs. Rose Awad, and her infant daughter, Joan Awad, a child of six years of age, were riding in the automobile driven by me. The manner in which said Jensen's car was being operated at the time of and immediately prior to the collision, the actions of the said Jensen immediately thereafter, as well as the pronounced smell of liquor about the person of Mr. Jensen, clearly indicated that he, the driver of the other car, had been drinking hard liquor, and was obviously under its influence.

Officers of the State Highway Patrol who investigated the said collision, took me and said Mr. Jensen, the driver of the other automobile, to Mobile, Alabama, and both the other driver and I were directed to appear in the Inferior Criminal Court, of Mobile County, Alabama, on a subsequent day shortly thereafter, which we did.

At the time of my appearance in said Court, I was represented by Mr. Leo Berman, an attorney-at-law, of Mobile. Certain legal papers were served upon me at that time and it was my understanding that all of these papers were in connection with my appearance before the Inferior Criminal Court, of Mobile County, and I left these papers with my said attorney, Mr. Berman. On several occasions, subsequent to that time, Mr. Berman wrote letters addressed jointly to Mr. Victor Awad and to me, with reference to legal proceedings. I am ignorant of legal matters and did not understand that said letters had reference to civil suits against me but thought reference was merely being made to the previous criminal proceedings in the Inferior Criminal Court, of Mobile County. I am and have been employed as a traveling salesman and the duties of my employment keep me away from my home for several weeks at a time, and I did not have the opportunity to reply to Mr. Berman's letters. I have not returned to the State of Alabama since February, 1940.

Mr. Jay A. Gilman, an attorney-at-law, of #450 - 7th Avenue, City of New York, New York, who was recently employed by Edward Awad, in connection with pending suits arising from the aforesaid collision, advised me only a few days ago that judgments by default had been taken against me on August 22nd, 1940, in three suits pending against me in the Circuit Court, of Baldwin County, of Alabama, brought by R. L. Jensen, Sr., Rosalie Jensen, and Esther O'Gwynn, respectively.

Because of my mistake as to the effect of the papers served upon me and as to the meaning of the letters which I received, with reference to them, I have been prevented from making defense to the said suits.

I have a good, valid and substantial defense on the merits to the actions instituted against me, as I have been advised by counsel, and which I verily believe to be the fact, and I intend in good faith defending the actions instituted against me, arising out of the collision referred to.

Louis Weissberg

Subscribed and sworn to before me by Louis Weissberg, on this the 10th day of September, 1940, as witness my hand and official notarial seal.
