Dear Madam:

In answer to your court order I wish to make the following statement.

The only property that I own are my house and two lots, which are located one-half mile north of Silver Hill, and which are jointly owned by myself and my wife, Mable, with a mortgage of $565, held by the Central Baldwin Bank. My other holdings are the Silver Hill Dairy, of which I hold one-third interest, although it is being operated under my name. The other two-thirds interest is owned by minors; Harald Dearborn and Gordon Dearborn. The value of this business is approximately $8000, with $4000 indebtedness against it, held by the Central Baldwin Bank and the State Bank of Elberta, and there is no cash on hand.
