VERNON STEVENS,

Plaintiff,

VS.

FUEL OIL SUPPLY COMPANY,
a Corporation,

Defendant.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF
BALDWIN COUNTY, ALABAMA.

AT LAW.

1. The Plaintiff claims of the Defendant the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) damages for that heretofore on to-wit, February 19, 1944, the Plaintiff was a passenger in an automobile being operated along and over the public highway in Baldwin County, Alabama, known as U. S. Highway Number 90, at a point approximately three miles northwest of Loxley, Alabama, where he has a right to be and while the said automobile in which he was riding was being driven along the said highway a motor truck and trailer of the Defendant which was being operated by its agent, servant or employee, who was then and there acting within the line and scope of his authority, negligently ran upon, over or against the automobile in which the Plaintiff was riding, causing great damage and injury to him. He was cut on the back of his head, cut on his nose and forehead, injured about his chest and right side, his left leg was bruised about the knee and ankle, his right knee was bruised and he was bruised on his lower jaw causing loss of teeth, he was made sick and sore and suffered great mental pain and anguish and caused to incur great expense for doctor bills, medicine and hospital expense. Plaintiff further avers that all of his said injuries and damages were proximately caused by the negligence of the servant, agent or employee of the defendant then and there in charge of the said truck for the defendant and acting within the line and scope of his duty in the employment of the defendant in this that the said servant, agent or employee negligently operated the said automobile truck at the time and place of collision.
