VAUDIS CRAFT HURLEY,
Plaintiff,
vs.
JACK GRIFFITH,
Defendant.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF
BALDWIN COUNTY, ALABAMA
LAW SIDE.

Comes the Defendant in the above styled cause and moves the Court to strike Counts 3 and 4 of the Complaint filed by the Plaintiff in the above styled cause and as grounds for said motion says:

1. That Count 3 is an unnecessary repetition of Count 1.
2. That Count 4 is an unnecessary repetition of Count 2.
3. That Counts 3 and 4 are unnecessary repetitions of Counts 1 and 2 respectively.
4. That Count 3 only restates the facts alleged in Count 1 in different words without changing any of its allegations which are material.
5. That Count 4 only restates the allegations of Count 2 without changing any of its material allegations.

VAUDIS CRAFT HURLEY,
Plaintiff,

VS.

JACK GRIFFITH,
Defendant.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF
BALDWIN COUNTY, ALABAMA.

COMPLAINT

1. Plaintiff claims of the Defendant the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) as damages, for that, heretofore, on, to-wit, the first day of August, 1948, the Plaintiff was riding on a motorcycle on a public highway in the State of Alabama, to-wit, in the City of Fairhope, Alabama, at or near the intersection of the highway from Fairhope to Daphne and the highway from Fairhope to Robertsdale, and that then and there the Defendant so negligently drove an automobile that the said automobile and the motorcycle on which the Plaintiff was riding collided at a point, to-wit, on a public highway in the City of Fairhope, Alabama, at or near the intersection of the highway from Fairhope to Daphne and the highway from Fairhope to Robertsdale, and that as the proximate result and consequence thereof the Plaintiff received severe personal injuries in that she was bruised, cut, lacerated and scarred; she was made sick, sore, and lame; she was internally injured; her right leg was broken, her body, head and limbs were injured; she was injured permanently; she was caused to expend considerable sums for medical treatment, hospital care, nursing and medicines in and about the treatment of her injuries; she lost much time from her work and her capacity for work has been greatly reduced permanently; she suffered and continues to suffer great mental and physical pain and anguish; all to her great damage in the aforesaid sum, hence this suit.

2. Plaintiff claims of the Defendant the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) for that, heretofore, on, to-wit, the first day of August, 1948, the Plaintiff was riding on a motorcycle on a public highway in the State of Alabama, to-wit, in the City of Fairhope, Alabama, at or near the intersection of the highway from Fairhope to Daphne and the highway from Fairhope to Robertsdale, and that then and there the Defendant wantonly injured the Plaintiff by wantonly driving an automobile into the motorcycle upon which the Plaintiff was riding, and that as a proximate result and consequence thereof the Plaintiff received severe personal injuries in that she was bruised, cut, lacerated and scarred; she was made sick, sore, and lame; she was internally injured; her right leg was broken, her body, head and limbs were injured; she was injured permanently; she was caused to expend considerable sums for medical treatment, hospital care, nursing and medicines in and about the treatment of her injuries; she lost much time from her work and her capacity for work has been greatly reduced permanently; she suffered and continues to suffer great mental and physical pain and anguish; all to her great damage in the aforesaid sum, hence this suit.

3. Plaintiff claims of the Defendant the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) for that, heretofore, on, to-wit, the first day of August, 1948, the Plaintiff was riding on a motorcycle on a public highway in the State of Alabama, to-wit, in the City of Fairhope, Alabama, at or near the intersection of the highway from Fairhope to Daphne and the highway from Fairhope to Robertsdale, and that then and there said motorcycle collided with the automobile which Defendant was driving, and that as a proximate result and consequence thereof the Plaintiff suffered severe personal injuries in that she was bruised, cut, lacerated and scarred; she was made sick, sore, and lame; she was injured internally; her right leg was broken, her body, head and limbs were injured; she was injured permanently; she was caused to expend considerable sums for medical treatment, hospital care, nursing and medicines in and about the treatment of her injuries; she lost much time from her work and her capacity for work has been greatly reduced permanently; she suffered and continues to suffer great mental and physical pain and anguish; all to her great damage in the aforesaid sum.

Plaintiff further avers that said collision was caused by and was the proximate result and consequence of the negligence of the Defendant in that he negligently caused or allowed said automobile to run into the said motorcycle.

4. Plaintiff claims of the Defendant the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) for that, heretofore, on, to-wit, the first day of August, 1948, the Plaintiff was riding on a motorcycle on a public highway in the State of Alabama, to-wit, in the City of Fairhope, Alabama, at or near the intersection of the highway from Fairhope to Daphne and the highway from Fairhope to Robertsdale, and that then and there the Defendant cause or allowed an automobile he was driving to run into said motorcycle, and that as a proximate result and consequence thereof the Plaintiff received severe personal injuries in that she was bruised, cut, lacerated and scarred; she was made sick, sore, and lame; she was injured internally; her right leg was broken, her body, head and limbs were injured; she was injured permanently; she was caused to expend considerable sums for medical treatment, hospital care, nursing and medicines in and about the treatment of her injuries; she lost much time from her work and her capacity for work has been greatly reduced permanently; she suffered and continues to suffer great mental and physical pain and anguish; all to her great damage in the aforesaid sum.

Plaintiff further avers that Defendant wantonly injured the Plaintiff by wantonly causing or allowing said automobile to run into the said motorcycle.
