WILLARD BYRD, FRED BYRD | NO. 1390
and W. J. HALL, jointly | and severally,
DEFENDANTS |

Comes the defendant, Fred Byrd, and answering plaintiff's complaint and each count thereof separately and severally says:

FIRST:

That the matters alleged therein are untrue.

SECOND:

That the plaintiff was guilty of contributory negligence which was the proximate cause of the damages sustained.

THIRD:

That the plaintiff ought not to recover in this suit because at the time and place of the alleged accident the plaintiff so negligently operated his said motor vehicle as to cause the same to collide with the motor vehicle of the defendant and which said negligence was the proximate cause of the damages alleged to have been sustained.

FOURTH:

That the plaintiff ought not to recover in this suit because at the time and place of the alleged injury the plaintiff was negligently driving an automobile at an unlawful and reckless rate of speed and that such negligence of the plaintiff proximately contributed to the damages complained of.

FIFTH:

That the defendant, as a defense to the action of the plaintiff says that at the time the said action was commenced, the plaintiff was indebted to the defendant in the sum of $10,000.00, as damages, for that, on to-wit: the 15th day of March, 1949, said plaintiff was operating or driving an automobile on United States Highway 31, a public highway in the County of Baldwin, State of Alabama, at a point approximately one mile North of Bay Minette, that on said date and at said time and place the defendant's automobile truck was by one Willard Byrd, the agent of this defendant, being driven on said highway; that the said plaintiff at the said time and said place negligently ran a motor vehicle, which he was driving, against said automobile truck of the defendant, in which he was transporting certain live stock namely: one cow belonging to this defendant, and other livestock; and as a proximate result thereof defendant's said automobile truck was broken, bent, injured and demolished beyond repair and said cow injured, its back and ribs broken, and thereby rendered less valuable; that the defendant operated and used the said automobile truck in and about his business of hauling, and as a result of such damages to the said truck he was, from the date of the said injury to this date deprived of the use of the same and thereby caused to lose much money; and defendant avers that all such injuries and damages were the proximate result of the plaintiff's negligence aforesaid; which he hereby offers to set-off against the demand of the plaintiff and prays judgment for the excess.

SIXTH:

That the defendant, as a defense to the action

of the plaintiff says that at the time the said action was commenced, the plaintiff was indebted to the defendant in the sum of $10,000.00 as damages, for that, on to-wit: the 15th day of March, 1949, said plaintiff was operating or driving a motor vehicle on United States Highway 31, a public highway in the County of Baldwin, State of Alabama, at a point approximate one mile North of Bay Minette, that on said date and at said time and place the defendant's automobile truck was, by one Willard Byrd, being driven on said highway; that the said plaintiff at the said time and said place ran the motor vehicle driven by him against the said automobile truck of the defendant, in which defendant was transporting certain livestock, namely one cow owned by defendant, and other livestock, and as a proximate consequence defendant was injured and damaged as follows: the said automobile truck was broken, bent, injured and demolished beyond repair, and said cow injured, its back and ribs broken, and thereby rendered less valuable; that the defendant operated and used the said automobile truck in and about his business of hauling and as a result of such damages to the said truck he was from the date of the said injury to this date deprived of the use of the same and thereby caused to lose much money; and the defendant avers that the said plaintiff at said time and place wantonly injured defendant by wantonly running the motor vehicle of the plaintiff against the said automobile truck, the property of the defendant, in which he was transporting the live stock aforesaid, and as a proximate consequence of said wanton conduct defendant avers that he was caused to sustain and did sustain the injury and damages complained
