T. E. MALONE
Plaintiff
VS
A. L. McCUE
Defendant

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF
BALDWIN COUNTY, ALABAMA
IN EQUITY. NO. _____.

MOTION TO TRANSFER TO EQUITY

Now comes the defendant, A. L. McCue and shows unto the Court as follows:

1.

The Defendant's rights in this case depend upon the assertion of an equitable right or defense, the decision of which should dispose of this cause and which cannot be disposed of on the Law Side of this Court.

2.

That the plaintiff and your petitioner entered into an agreement on the 2nd day of January 1943 which agreement provided that the plaintiff place in the hands of your petitioner, A. L. McCue, the sum of $4,700.00 to be used in connection with said business. Copy of said agreement being attached to the original complaint filed in this cause by the plaintiff. That prior to the withdrawal of the plaintiff in this cause from participation in the business known as the Baldwin County Beverage Company, that the plaintiff had withdrawn funds from said business over and above his share of the profits from said business, according to the contract alleged above, a sum of money in excess of four thousand seven hundred dollars ($4,700.00).

3.

At or about the time of withdrawal by the plaintiff, T. E. Malone, your petitioner, A. L. McCue, arranged for the purchase of the Kaiser-Frazer business at Robertsdale, Alabama from the owner, A. G. Allegri and paid the said A. G. Allegri the sum of $1,000.00 as a binder with an agreed purchase price of $1,000.00 and the further agreement that the purchaser did rent from the said A. G. Allegri the building occupied by said business for the sum of $3,600.00 per annum. That your petitioner, A. L. McCue, paid the sum of $900.00 of said rents and placed the said plaintiff in this cause T. E. Malone in possession of the Kaiser-Frazer agency with the agreement that the said T. E. Malone would complete the contracts entered into with A. G. Allegri and the Kaiser-Frazer Corporation.

4.

That your petitioner, A. L. McCue, thereafter entered into negotiations with the Studebaker Corporation for a franchise to handle Studebaker automobiles and your petitioner, A. L. McCue, then arranged for this franchise to be handled by the plaintiff in this cause, T. E. Malone.

5.

That your petitioner, A. L. McCue, put money, business experience, time, and effort into the establishment of the automobile business aforesaid and that the plaintiff in this cause, T. E. Malone, has at no time furnished an accounting of the profits of said joint venture nor has he paid over to your petitioner, A. L. McCue, any profits accruing from said joint venture in which your petitioner, A. L. McCue, has invested money, time, experience and effort.

6.

Further your petitioner, A. L. McCue, says under oath that there was no consideration for the execution of the promissory note alleged as due in original cause #1515 and consolidated with a previous cause between these parties.

7.

The defendant, as a defense to the action of the plaintiff, saith that, at the time said action was commenced, the plaintiff was indebted to him in a sum of money, the exact amount of which is unknown but that said moneys are due as the result of the said services and payments stated in the preceding paragraph and maybe ascertained to be an exact amount upon proper determination by an accounting between said parties, all of which he hereby offers to set off against the demand of the plaintiff, and he claims judgments for the excess as maybe determined by said account petitioned supra.

8.

Prior to the institution of this suit, and on, to-wit: the date of dissolution between said parties defendant paid to the plaintiff the balance due of said moneys as final and payment in full of said moneys received from the plaintiff.

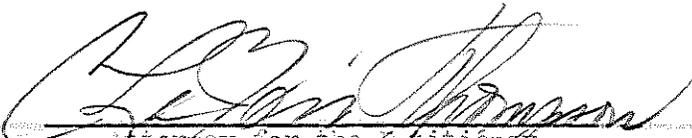

WHEREFORE, Defendant moves the Court to make and enter a proper order or decree transferring this consolidated cause to the Equity Docket of the Circuit Court of Baldwin County, Alabama that an accounting may be had between said parties and for such other and further proceedings as may be or which may become necessary or proper. And that T. E. Malone be required by order of this court to make full disclosure of all assets of every nature and of every kind held or received by him from your Petitioner to the end that this Honorable Court may proceed to determine the rights or interest of a cestui qui trust whether express or implied, whether resulting or constructive, arising out of the actions or transactions of or between the parties hereto.

Your Petitioner prays for such other or different relief, as in equity or good conscience may be entitled to, and your petitioner ever prays, etc.

Petitioner.

Attorney for the Petitioner.
