In re: Amco Feed Stores, Inc., Judgment-plaintiff

vs.

William F. Raignor, Judgment-debtor.

Case No. 1457

Circuit Court, Baldwin County, Alabama.

In the Matter of the Claim of Exemption of William F. Raignor filed with the Sheriff of Baldwin County, Alabama:

Before me, Erna Louise Whiting, a Notary Public in and for the County of Mobile, State of Alabama, personally appeared A. S. Whiting, as Attorney for Amco Feed Stores, Inc., the plaintiff in the above-styled cause, who, being by me first duly sworn, deposes and says that he is the attorney of record for the plaintiff above-named in the above-styled cause, wherein said Amco Feed Stores, Inc. is plaintiff and the said William F. Raignor is defendant, and that in his belief the claim of exemption filed in the office of Taylor Wilkins, Sheriff of Baldwin County, Alabama, on towit, August 17th, 1951, by William F. Raignor is invalid in part, or is excessive, that is to say that the real property therein claimed to be exempt to said William F. Raignor as a homestead is of a reasonable market value of more than $2,000.00; that said claim of exemptions purports to be exempt to said William F. Raignor as a homestead the personal property therein enumerated; that the personal property in said claim of exemption enumerated is of a reasonable market value in excess of the sum of $1,000.00; for that said claim of exemption does not set out or define with certainty the nature and extent of the interest of the said William F. Raignor therein alleged to be owned by him in said real property therein described; for that the said William F. Raignor in said claim of exemption seeks to have set aside to him as a homestead exemption the personal property therein described.
