

To the Honorable A.E. Gamble

Judge of the 2nd Judicial Circuit of the State of Alabama

Your Petitioner Myrtle Grubbs respectfully represents unto Your Honor as follows: That she is defendant in the divorce suit instituted against her by her husband Jordan S. Grubbs in the Circuit Court of Baldwin County, Alabama.

That Your Complainant Jordan S. Grubbs and Your Petitioner were married in the 11th day of July A.D. 1911, and continued to live together as man and wife for a period of about three months, when they separate and have remained separate and apart ever since.

That Your Petitioner represents that at the time of her marriage to the said Jordan S. Grubbs she was only sixteen years of age and lack that sound discretion and judgment of a person of age.

That she is now of age and possessed discretion and judgment and is in every way a person suitable to remarry and again enter the state of matrimony.

Therefore Your petitioner prays, that considering the fact that petitioner was married when she was young, lacked knowledge and discretion and was unhappily married, and that she only remained married and lived with the Complainant for a short time, and that she now has arrived at the mature state ^{she} and desires to again be permitted to remarry, and respectfully request that an order may be made so permitting her.
