H. M. THOMPSON * IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF
* BALDWIN COUNTY, ALABAMA
PLAINTIFF *
VS * AT LAW
* COCA COLA BOTTLING COMPANY *
DEFENDANT *

Now comes the Plaintiff by his Attorney, Reuben F. McKinley and represents to this Honorable Court as follows; That on, to wit, January 3, 1952, the Plaintiff bought an unopened bottle of Coca Cola from Trailway Service Station, located in the city of Bay Minette, in Baldwin County, Alabama. Plaintiff opened said bottle of Coca Cola and had drank part of it when he found a bobby pin in the bottle of Coca Cola, because of the negligence of Defendant, their agents or servants in not properly cleaning the Coca Cola bottle as a proximate consequence of which, Plaintiff, who suffers from ulcerated stomach, became nauseated and ill. Plaintiff avers that the doctrine of Res Ipsa Loquitur is applicable to this cause and maintains that he is entitled to damages in the amount of, to wit, $10,000 for the nausea and illness he suffered as a proximate consequence of drinking the part of the bottle of Coca Cola and then finding the bobby pin in it. The Plaintiff avers that the Defendant owes him a duty to keep from injuring him while he is drinking a bottle of Coca Cola, a highly advertised beverage, that he was drinking the Coca Cola at the express invitation of the Coca Cola Bottling Company by their advertisements and that Coca Cola Bottling Company breached it's high duty of care owed to Plaintiff, an invitee, by allowing the bobby pin to be in the bottle of Coca Cola, as a proximate consequence of which the plaintiff suffered the above mentioned damages, in the extent of to wit, ten thousand dollars.
