That they are subject to the provision of the Workmen's Compensation Law of Alabama, as amended. That the said employee, residing at Bay Minette, Alabama, who can read and understand the English language and who is over the age of twenty-one years, did on the 20th day of October, 1967, sustain injury by accident while employed by said employer, resulting in a twenty-five percent (25%) permanent partial disability to the body as a whole of said employee and consisted of an injury to his lumbar disc syndrome. That said employee was receiving at the time of injury wages at the rate of $58.00 per week.

VOL 64 PAGE 507

agree that the employee reached maximum medical payments on September 11, 1969, and at that time the employer did not stop the payment of weekly temporary total disability benefits at the rate of $34.80 and, therefore, the employee was over paid nine weeks through November 13, 1969, or the amount of $313.20. When the overpayment of $313.20 is divided by the permanent partial rate the employee is entitled to 36 weeks extending the permanent partial disability from September 12, 1969, through May 21, 1970, and when this is applied to the 300 week maximum there is a balance to be discounted of 167 1/7 weeks making a balance due the employee of $1327.95, which the employer offers to pay in a lump sum settlement to the employee; all subject to the limitations of said act, and the employee agrees to give proper receipt for the payment made hereunder.

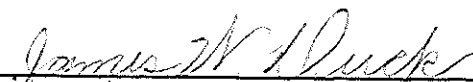

The employee acknowledges that he has received to date medical and surgical treatment and benefits given by the said act in the full amount thereof. The employee agrees to present himself for examination, or if physically unable to do so, to submit to an examination by the physician or physicians designated by the employer, when requested.

This settlement is substantially in accordance with Sections 278 and 279 of Title 26 of the 1940 Code of Alabama, as amended. When the payment hereunder has been made, the employer shall be and hereby is released from all claims on account of said injury, under said act or otherwise. This settlement contains the whole agreement between the parties hereto.

DATED this 2nd day of FEBRUARY, 1970.
