RE: Blach vs. Johnson

Dear Red,

Today I got a notice from the Court that the above two Garnishments had been dismissed and that there was an outstanding Cost Bill in the amount of $38.00.

I have been writing the Court over there since February 25, 1973. I wrote you on June 4, 1973 about the matter and never heard from you.

I now call on you to honor your word as given to me on the phone on December 18, 1972. In case you have forgotten what it was, it is set out in my June 4 letter to you which you never answered.

Yours,

J. GLENN COBB, JR.
