DEMURRER

Comes now the Defendant in the above styled cause and demurs to the Plaintiff's Complaint and assigns as grounds for said demurrer the following, separately and severally, to-wit:

1. Plaintiff's Complaint fails to state a cause of action against the Defendant.
2. Plaintiff's Complaint fails to state a cause of action upon which relief can be granted.
3. For aught appearing from the Plaintiff's Complaint, this Court has no jurisdiction of this cause.
4. The location of the building allegedly damaged is not set out with sufficient particularity to give this Court jurisdiction.
5. For aught appearing there was no consideration for the alleged policy of insurance sued upon.
6. Plaintiff's Complaint is so vague, uncertain and indefinite as to fail to apprise the Defendant of what it is being called upon to defend.
7. For aught appearing from the Plaintiff's Complaint it is impossible to determine who owns the policy of insurance allegedly being sued upon.
8. For aught appearing from the Plaintiff's Complaint, this Plaintiff does not own the property allegedly injured.

9. For aught appearing from the alleged contractual policy of insurance was not in writing and would therefore be in violation of the statute of frauds.
