Mrs. Eunice Blackmon
Clerk of the Court, At Law
Bay Minette, Alabama

Dear Eunice:

I am aware that my absence caused some of my cases to be dismissed last week during the Civil, non-jury docket. There are some which I ask to be reinstated. I was not present because these cases were not ready for trial.

Miller vs. A.J. Knight #9602

As far as I can tell, this summons and complaint has yet to be served on the defendant. Waiting for the Sheriff's dept.

Lanier Angle vs. Jubilee Beach Campark #9534

Not yet any service on the defendant. I sent word to the sheriff's people that the correct address for him is "Camparks of America, 2102 Government Street, Mobile, Alabama" and they replied that I needed to write you and have you re-issue S&C for service in Mobile. Therefore, I request it be done. I ought to be in Bay Minette this Thursday to answer any questions.

La Rue Flying Service vs. Henry King, #9615

This case is ripe for default judgment and I have been holding off writing you asking for this, giving the defendant until March 23(next Tuesday) to come in and work out a repayment schedule.

Doering vs. Gene Jaye #9533

This defendant has not yet been served by the Sheriff's dept.

~~Douglas~~ Parker & White vs. Rhodes #9436

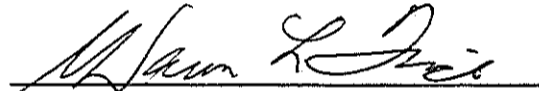

Has this fellow been served yet? I shall check this Thursday?
