Re: General Electric Credit Corp.
vs. Willis Anderson

Gentlemen:

In reference to your letter of November 28, 1972, regarding the above garnishment. Please deduct the $6.34 per week which would bring this individual up to his 25% allowable under the law. Upon payment of the previous garnishment in full, please deduct the full 25% until this amount is taken care of.

Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.

Very truly yours,

T. DWIGHT REID

Gentlemen:

This is in reference to your judgement case No. 9699 in the amount of $400.00 against Willis Anderson, an employee of this company, in behalf of General Electric Corporation.

At the present time, we are deducting $17.50 weekly for Case #8579, Liberty Loan Corporation - 576057 and Donald A. Friedlander dated October 18, 1972.

We anticipate 26 more weeks to complete this garnishment, plus court costs that might be added, provided he works every week.

According to law, we cannot deduct more than 25% of this man's disposable salary. Based on an average six weeks pay period, this only leaves $6.34 per week for anyone else to receive.

May we hear from you?

Very truly yours,
