Re: First National Bank Of Mobile Vs.
a. W N Stuckey Lumber Co. 6425
b. F H Daniels #8425
c. William Etheridge #971

Dear Mr. Byrd:

Just a line to let you know we haven't forgotten you in this letter.

Our credit department has no record of items a. and b. Chason, Stone and Chason have no file, or record on item a. Mr. John V Duck has given us a name of a bank officer who signed papers on the F H Daniels account. We are having that department search their files for a record of Daniels or W N Stuckey Lumber Co.

If I understand correctly the $16.00 we sent you Etheridge (#9726) was applied to the $17.50 owed in court cost by another customer, Madeline Cattrette. You later billed us for another $1.50 on Cattrette (which was paid in June 1973, and we still owe the $16.00 on Etheridge.

Since our records show we have paid Etheridge's court cost I Cannot debit his account again. Please send me a cost bill on Cattrette for my files.

Sincerely,

J F Busby
