I

CASE NO. 9753

1.

The Plaintiff claims of the Defendants the sum of TWO HUNDRED TWENTY AND NO/100 DOLLARS ($220.00), balance due after all proper credits given on a promissory note made by the Defendants on the 30th day of January, 1970 and payable as follows: 12 monthly payments of $22.00 each, the first payment due and payable on March 2, 1970. The Plaintiff avers that the Defendants defaulted in the payment of the installments and under the provisions of the note sued on, the whole balance became due and payable. The Plaintiff claims interest at the rate of 6% on the unpaid balance.

Lender: JACKSON INVESTMENT COMPANY

Jackson, Mississippi

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, the undersigned jointly and severally promise to pay to the order of above named Lender, at the office of the Licensed Broker at the address shown above, the total amount of the note shown above in consecutive instalments as shown above, the first of which is payable in the amount and on the due date specified under First Instalment shown above, each subsequent instalment is payable on the same day of each succeeding month thereafter, the number of such instalments and the amount of each such instalment being shown hereon under the heading Other Instalments, and the final instalment is payable on the Final Instalment Due Date shown hereon.

The Type of Security for this note is as shown above.

In the event default should be made in the payment of the full amount of any instalment as and when due, as herein provided, the entire unpaid balance hereof shall, at the option of the holder hereof and without notice or demand, become immediately due and payable and pay any attorney's fees hereon and all other costs incurred in the collection of this note.

Payment in advance may be made in any amount at any time. If the full amount of this note or any instalment as shown hereon is not paid at maturity, then the unpaid balance shall bear interest thereafter at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum.

All parties hereto severally waive demand and presentment for payment, notice of nonpayment, notice of protest and protest of this note, and agree that their liability hereunder shall not be affected by any extension of the time of payment of all or any part of the amount owing hereon at any time or times, and further waive all rights of exemption under the laws of this or any other state.

The undersigned acknowledge receipt of a statement in English, as required by Section 14(a) of the Small Loan Regulatory Act of the State of Mississippi.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned have hereunto set their hands on the date of the loan as shown hereon.
