Dear Mrs. Blackmon:

I have been receiving payments directly from the defendant in this matter and would appreciate your recalling execution from the Sheriff's office at this time. If they do not complete payments on the thing, I will again have execution forwarded to the Sheriff; but for right now they are paying satisfactorily.

Yours very truly,

Dear Judge Mashburn:

Personal service was obtained on the defendant on July 16, 1971, and he made one $25.00 payment shortly thereafter. I have had no luck in getting further payments, and, therefore, request judgment by default in this matter for $53.00 principal and $3.18 interest, for a total of $56.18 plus costs of court.

Respectfully submitted,
