Re: Pearson Bros. vs. Dubose
Case No. 10,129

Dear Judge Mashburn:

The litigants in the above suit have an appointment to meet together on Monday, March 20, 1972. Mr. William Boggs has contacted me representing the defendant and I have agreed that it is not necessary for him to file pleadings until we have met this one time to try to settle the case. Should we be unable to do so on the 20th, then we shall both ask the Court for a special setting to try the case. In this regard, it is requested that the case be passed pending settlement.

Sincerely,
