Re: Mabel J. Frey
vs:
Jacob B. Weyler

Case No. 10,216

Dear Mr. Weyler:

The above styled case was on the 10th day of April, 1973 marked by the Judge settled between the parties - case dismissed; Defendant taxed with the costs. The costs of $25.50, which is taxed against you, has not as of this day been paid. Upon the receipt of this amount, the case will be completely closed and we can then issue a certificate of dismissal upon your request.

If we can be of further help to you, please let us know.

Yours very truly,

Circuit Court of Baldwin County
Dear Sir:-

Would you please let me know if the case against me by Mabel J. Frey for a claim of damages from an accident July 9, 1971 has been dismissed.

This suit was filed by Mr. William P. Boggs P.O. Box 104, Spanish Fort Alabama and set for a hearing on January 18, 1973.

However a settlement was made and this damage claim has all been paid.

Should you require proof that this damage claim has been paid, I will be pleased to send you the letter I received from Mr. Boggs when the last payment was made.

I need this Court dismissal to send to the Department of Public Safety so I can have my drivers license returned.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely Yours
Jacob B. Weyler
