In RE: Garnishment of
John L. Boston's Wages
10,401 1/2

Dear Mr. Blackmon:

The above mentioned employee has not received $48.00 in take home pay since we received the garnishment of his wages. However, his foreman thinks that since he has been placed on a different job that there is reason to believe that he will work regular. So we will try to collect what we can.

If after a reasonable time this appears hopeless, we will be back in touch with you.

Yours truly,

W. H. Hodges
