RE: Dees Paper Company vs.
Norman J. Currier
Case no. 10533
Our File 71 6766 PVS

Dear Mrs. Blackmon:

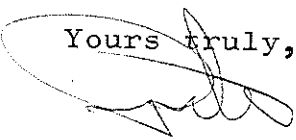

The card I received from you indicates service against the defendant Norman J. Currier on August 7, 1972. The case is now 30 days in default and I would like a judgment entered.

The suit was on an itemized verified account in the amount of $1592.30. If possible, please ask Judge Mashburn to sign a judgment entry against Mr. Currier in this amount.

If my attendance in court is necessary or my client's attendance, please advise and I will be happy to comply with the Court's request.

Thanking you for your help and assistance I remain,

Yours truly,

Peter V. Sintz
