1 Div 44
 Appeal from Baldwin Circuit Court,

Come the parties by attorneys and the record and matters therein assigned for error being submitted on briefs, and duly examined and understood, by the Court, it is considered that in the record and proceedings of the Circuit Court there is no error, except in the matter of sentencing the Appellant to hard labor to pay the costs of prosecution at the rate of forty cents per day. It is therefore considered that the judgment of the Circuit Court be and is corrected, and the Appellant here sentenced to one hundred and seven (107) days hard labor in place of two (200) days to pay the costs of said prosecution, and the judgment of said Circuit Court as herein corrected, is affirmed without costs.
