

The State vs Crook Walker obstructing Rail Road.

oath set forth in section 7286 - was duly administered to the other Grand Jurors, and J. H. Wilkins was sworn in as Bailiff in attendance to the Grand Jury thus organized who being duly charged in reference to the business to be transacted then retired to the Grand Jury Room.

(The State of Alabama)
(Baldwin County) (Circuit Court Fall Term 1910)

The Grand Jury of said County charge that before the finding of this indictment, Crook Walker wantonly placed an impediment, to wit - a cross tie on the Rail Road of the Louisville and Nashville Rail Road Company in such manner as to render liable the engine, car or other vehicle to diverge or be thrown from the track thereof.

And said Grand Jury further charge that, before the finding of this indictment, Crook Walker wantonly or maliciously placed an impediment on the track of the Louisville and Nashville Rail Road Company, to wit: a cross tie in such manner as to render the engine to diverge or be thrown from the track thereof.
