State of Alabama } In Circuit Court of Baldwin County.
County of Baldwin. }

E. J. Polk }
vs. } Bill for Diverce.
Jodie W. Polk. }

To the Honorable F. W. Hare, Judge of the Circuit Court of Baldwin County, Alabama. In Equity sitting.

Now comes E. J. Polk and humbly complaining against Jodie W. Polk respectfully shows unto your Honor as follows:

First.

That your complainant and defendant herein, Jodie W. Polk, are both over the age of twenty one years, and that he is now, and has been, a resident of said County for more than three years immediately preceeding the filing of this complaint. That said defendant is not now a resident of the State of Alabama, and the last known address of said defendant was Ponce de Leon, Florida.

Second.

That on March 14, 1910, your complainant and said Jodie W. Polk, defendant herein, intermarried in due form of law and have been ever since, and now are, husband and wife. That during the month of September, 1930, defendant left, deserted and abandoned complainant without just cause, and has since that time continuously remained away from him.

Wherefore, the premises considered, complainant prays that the bonds of matrimony between him and the defendant be dissolved; and for such other and further relief as to your Honor may seem right and proper.

Attorney for Complainant.

The defendant, Jodie W. Polk, is required to answer every allegation of the foregoing complaint, but not uner oath. Oath is hereby expressly waived.
