

Blanche S. Broadwood }
 vs. } Fall Term, 1895.
 Aaron Moog }
 Comes the plaintiff
 and asks leave to amend her complaint by adding, as a party plaintiff, the name of "Louis J. Broadwood".
 Jno. E. Mitchell,
 Atty for P. & P.

Pillans, James of Hannan,
 Contra.

Sarah Le Page }
 vs. } Fall Term 1895 -
 nan Cox } appeal
 Comes the plaintiff

and ~~moves~~ alleges that the sureties upon the appeal bond are worthless & insufficient and moves the court to require sufficient sureties upon said appeal bond

Frank Stone Jr
 Atty for P. & P.

Smith & Gaynor
 Contra.

Maria L. Alexander }
 vs. }
 Eliza J. Bottom }

Whereas the Complaint filed in the above case contained the allegation that the note sued on waived all the exemptions allowed by the laws of Alabama, and whereas the allegation was omitted by mistake from the judgment which was obtained by the plaintiff at the last term of court, now comes the plaintiff and moves the court to amend the judgment obtained at the last term of the court in the above case, by adding thereto the fact that the note sued on contained a waiver of all the exemptions allowed by the law of Alabama

Granted ~~at~~ 29th of P. Burgess Jr
 E. H. Smith special judge for motion by 9/11/95

Motion granted & Dept. Excepto
 W. S. Anderson Judge