

W. T. RAWLEIGH & COMPANY
a corporation

Plaintiff

vs

E. V. McLEOD, Defendant

CIRCUIT COURT

BAIDWIN COUNTY, ALABAMA.

AT LAW

Comes the Defendant in the above styled cause and moves the Court to set aside the judgement rendered in this cause February 5, 1929 and to grant a new trial and as grounds therefor, says:

1st. The judgement is contrary to the law and the evidence.

2nd. The judgement is contrary to the law

3rd. The judgement is contrary to the evidence.

Beebe & Hall
Attorneys for Defendant

2/6/29: Submitted & continued for consideration - To be ruled on in 30 days
J. W. Hare
Judge

2/28/29.

Motion granted. It is the order and judgment of the Court that judgment heretofore rendered against the defendant be, and same hereby is, set aside and held for nought, and a new trial of the cause ordered.

J. W. Hare
Judge

Recd Oct 6/929
J. Williams