TO THE HONORABLE JOHN D. LEIGH, JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

Comes petitioner, J.B. Wilson, Jr., and shows unto your Honor as follows:

1. That he is a resident citizen of the State of Alabama, residing at Bay Minette, in Baldwin County, and has been a resident of Baldwin County for past three and one-half months; that on or about the 31st, day of March, 1920, a decree of divorce was granted by the Superior Court of Fulton County, in the State of Georgia, in a case wherein Mrs. Maude Wilson was complainant, and J.B. Wilson, Jr., was respondent, said respondent being your petitioner, which decree dissolved the bonds of matrimony existing between said Maude Wilson and this petitioner, on the ground of cruel treatment and non-support; that in said decree of divorce no order was made allowing your petitioner to marry again.

2. Your petitioner avers that he is a young man over the age of twenty-one years, is industrious, has a good moral character and is worthy of again contracting marriage, and is now in fine physical condition and is capable and well qualified to support a family, and does not wish to live single because a single life would be very unsatisfactory and lonely to your petitioner.
