Re: At Law #2450 Reichler v. Hilburn, et al.

Dear Mrs. Duck:

We enclose herewith original and one copy of demurrer in the above case. We ask that you mark this demurrer filed, advising us by copy of this letter that the demurrer has been received and filed. We call your attention to the fact that the demurrer is filed on behalf of Pat George only.

We do not represent Orrie Hilburn.

Very truly yours,

)
AT LAW NO. 2450.
)

Comes now Pat George, individually and doing business as Pat George and Company, and demurs to plaintiff's complaint, and to each and every count thereof separately and severally, and as grounds therefor sets down and assigns the following separate and several grounds:

1. Said count fails to allege the violation of any duty owed by this defendant to the plaintiff.
2. The willful or wanton act described in said count characterizes the act and not the injury.
3. For aught that appears from said count the defendant did not willfully or wantonly injure the plaintiff.
