The plaintiff claims of the defendants the sum of Four Thousand, Five Hundred and no/100 ($4,500.00) Dollars, damages for that heretofore on to-wit the 14th day of August, 1954, John T. Maxwell, Jr., who was then and there the servant, agent or employee of the defendant John T. Maxwell, so negligently operated an automobile on U. S. Highway 90, a public highway in Baldwin County, Alabama, at a point approximately three thousand feet east of the intersection of Malbis Junction, in said county, that the same automobile then and there collided with an automobile in which the plaintiff's intestate was riding, and as a proximate result of said negligence the plaintiff's intestate received injuries, of which he died; that the said John T.
