I

Plaintiff claims of Defendant $163.27 as balance due on a promissory note made by him on the 12th day of March 1955 and payable on or before the 12th day of January 1956, with interest thereon which the rate of 8% per annum from date, which sum of money together with interest thereon is due and unpaid.

The Plaintiff alleges that in, by and as a part of said note, the Defendant waives as to this debt all rights of exemption under the Constitution and Laws of this or anyother State, and of this waiver the Plaintiff now claims benefit.

The Plaintiff further alleges that, on and as a part of said note the Defendant agreed to pay all collection charges and, if placed in the hands of an attorney after default, to pay a reasonable attorney's fee, and the Plaintiff further claims of the Defendant the sum of $125.00 as such reasonable attorney's fee.
