NO. 2922

DEMURRER

Now comes the defendant, Reynolds Brothers Lumber Company, a partnership composed of J. P. Reynolds and M. S. Reynolds and for demurrer to the complaint assign, separately and severally, the following:

1. It does not state a cause of action.
2. The allegations of the complaint are vague, indefinite and uncertain in that the place where the alleged accident happened is not described with sufficient certainty.
3. The allegations of the complaint are vague, indefinite and uncertain in that the partners composing the firm of Reynolds Brothers Lumber Company are not described with sufficient certainty.
4. It affirmatively appears from the allegations of the complaint that the alleged accident did not happen in Baldwin County, Alabama.
5. The allegations of the complaint are vague, indefinite and uncertain in that the damages to the plaintiff's automobile are not described with such sufficient certainty as to enable the defendant to know what it is called upon to defend.
