The plaintiff claims of the defendant the sum of Three Hundred and Seventy-five ($375.00) Dollars as damages for that heretofore on, to-wit: the 16th day of April, 1956, at about 6:30 o'clock, A. M., the plaintiff was driving his automobile South on Old Daphne Road, a City Street in the City of Bay Minette, Alabama, at a point where it is intersected by Mingo Street, where he had a right to be, and the defendant so negligently operated an automobile which she was then and there driving as to cause the plaintiff's automobile which he was then and there driving as aforesaid to be thrown off or to skid off said road and to collide with a telephone post on the side of said road; and plaintiff avers that as a proximate consequence the automobile being operated by the plaintiff was badly bent, broken, smashed and damaged: the top, front axle, left front fender, left front tire, bumper, left front door, left panel, steering gear, glass, windshield and left rear fender and panel, and other parts of plaintiff's automobile were broken, bent, smashed or otherwise damaged and injured, all to the damage of the plaintiff as aforesaid; and plaintiff avers that all of his said damages were proximately caused by the negligence of the defendant, in that she negligently caused, allowed or permitted the automobile which she was then and there driving to force the automobile of the plaintiff off the road as aforesaid; hence this suit.
